over downed trees. When we got to the front of our street we saw some of our furniture in the lot next door + knew it wasn't going to be good. When we walked in our house + saw everything we owned in a big pile in our dem, or overturned + covered with mud - I cried. Although my children lost everything they owned too - TV's, Stereos, playstation 2, etc - they never complained or cried. We still have a structure + are getting prepared to redo the inside of our house. We did have a tremendous loss, but we feel more fortunate then others that have only a slab. We are staying and our community will rebuild + in the not too distant future it will be better then ever.
